

Friends of the Deep River Public Library

2012 – 2013 Annual Fund Drive

(Membership Year – April 2012 through March 2013)

Our Purpose

“The purpose of this association shall be to maintain an association of persons interested in libraries and books; to stimulate more interest in the library by providing enrichment programs for the children and adults of the community; to focus public attention on library services, facilities and needs; and to stimulate gifts of books, magazines, desirable collections, endowments and bequests.”

Your membership, volunteering, donations and support in 2011-2012 provided the Library with:

1. Over $5,000 in funding for new books, DVDs and other materials for the Library collections and public use.
2. In recent years, such equipment as computers, printers, Wii and new flat-screen TV.
3. Funding to underwrite special Library programs such as Music with Margie and the CT Story-telling Center.
4. Membership in an on-line reference service available to all Library patrons.
5. Annual pewter holiday ornament for collectors.
6. Free passes to the Children’s Museum of Southeastern Connecticut, Connecticut River Museum, Florence Griswold Museum, Mystic Seaport, Peabody Museum, Roger Williams Park Zoo and Wadsworth Atheneum, and reduced admission to the Mystic Aquarium.

 Book Sale donations may be left in the library throughout the year. ***

Your support for our Library is so important. We thank you.
